

The Heiress

May/June 2001

By Ruth & Augustus Goetz

Directed by Dennis Delaney

Neglected by her father and left to her own devices, a young heiress yearns for true love. But when a young man comes calling, are his intentions honorable, or is he a predatory suitor? Based on the Henry James novel Washington Square, this compelling tale is a delicately wrought portrait of a woman finding her inner strength.

